Significant Issues and Responsive Programming
April 1 – June 30, 2012

Following are the categories of issues/concerns determined by WBTV to be of significance in the service area. Under each are described typical and illustrative programs, broadcast during the period, to address those problems and needs. This listing is representative only. It is neither a comprehensive listing of all needs of the service areas as ascertained by the licensee nor the totality of the licensee's responsive programming to those needs.

Applicable CBS/network programming is attached by hard copy. All responsive local programming produced outside the already dedicated newscasts is aired in prime access time periods.

Utilizing information gathered from news personnel, WBTV staff members, local community groups and leaders, and viewer research the following list has been compiled and is the most current significant problems, needs, and interests within our community today. Below is a representative list:

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES:

ECONOMY

4/16/12 Growing Veggies to Save (5:00 p.m., 2:23)

In Maureen O'Boyles's Stretching Your Dollar segment, she talks to Charlotte's "gardening gals" to see how gardening can cut down on your family grocery bill. Gardening can be a great way to save money while spending time outdoors.

4/23/12 Unplugging to Save (5:00 p.m., 1:25)

Maureen O'Boyles shows how much money appliances use when they are just merely plugged in. Unplugging your appliances when they are not in use can save a household a large sum of money.

4/30/12 How to be a Frugal Fashionista (5:00 p.m., 1:26)

At the North Tryon office of a local magazine they're working hard to empower women beyond the borders of North Carolina and around the globe... I asked the Editor in Chief Nicole Camack to help us find ways to be frugal fashionistas. The takeaway I got from Camack, is it's fine to be excited about fashion and trends, but keep them in perspective. "We work hard for our money; it is silly to blow it on 'trends'. Instead, for under $15 dollars you can purchase a scarf, some new lip color or polish and add that pop of color to spruce up what you already have.

5/11/12 Get Cash for your Kid's Clothing (5:00 p.m., 1:33)

Like a lot of parents, Karen has tons of clothing that's practically brand new that her child Jack cannot wear... This dilemma is why ThredUp.com is zeroed in on helping moms like Karen. The site allows you to "Clean Out and Cash In" as their slogan says... Once you get their trademark green polka dot bag, you fill it with clothing that meets their specifications... Thred Up will inspect the clothing and pay you 20-40% of what it will sell the clothing for in its online store. You can either get a check, or get shopping credit.

5/11/12 Greater Enrichment Program in Jeopardy (5:30 p.m., 1:33)

Funding for one of Charlotte's popular after school programs is in jeopardy. The Greater Enrichment Program (G.E.P.) has been around for about 30 years and receives much financial support from the city. Last year the city gave the program $605,854 to operate. This year it has recommended to give the program $211,102. That cut could mean staff could lose their jobs and there would be a reduction in the number of students who benefit from the program... Council will make the final decision on how much G.E.P. should get when they vote on their budget in June...

5/13/12 Health Insurance Advice for Recent College Grads (11:00 p.m., 0:27)

Thousands of college-aged students across the Carolinas are facing graduation, and first-time, full-time jobs. As part of growing up, they have to decide what kind of health coverage they want to carry. Brandon Cruz, founder of GoHealthInsurance.com, visited WBTV News Sunday Morning to talk about his "List of 6" student survival guide when it comes to choosing healthcare.

5/31/12 City Says No Grant Money (6:00 p.m., 1:25)

Charlotte city leaders said "No Thank You" to about a quarter of a million dollars. The federal money would have paid for sidewalks and other safety improvements near Sedgefield Elementary school. The city claims it was cheaper to say no. The city decided to use its own money to fund the project.

6/6/12 Putting Your Best Home Forward (11:00 p.m., 1:24)

6/7/12 (6:00 a.m., 1:24)

"Home Smart" Expert Sydney Weaver-Bey offers some simple and practical advice to those who are trying to sell in what continues to be a difficult real estate market. Her tips range from cleaning the dust from ceilings and fans, to being sure to polish the door handles.

6/9/12 Investing in a Volatile Market (5:00 a.m., 2:40) (6:00 a.m., 2:40)

Shawn Lee, President of Beacon Wealth Advisors and host of Wealth Builders Radio on WBT-AM, stopped by WBTV Saturday Morning to offer advice on investing in a volatile stock market. Among his tips, minimize risk and fees on your retirement, structure your accounts so that you don't have all your eggs in one basket, embrace flexibility within your investment strategy, and maintain an emergency fund.

6/11/12 Summer Fun Savings (5:00 p.m., 1:27)

The new 'Get Going Guide' for summer of 2012 is out... From the Nature Preserves to skate parks, the guide will give you hundreds of ideas of how to keep you kids busy this summer without spending a dime, or spending very little.

6/12/12 City Council Approves $8 million for Uptown Knights Stadium (12:00 p.m., 0:53) (5:30 p.m., 0:53)

Charlotte City Council members voted 7 to 4 to contribute $8 million to move the Charlotte Knights baseball stadium from Fort Mill to Uptown Charlotte... Councilman Michael Barnes told WBTV Sunday he thinks a number of other tourism related activities could benefit from the money... The Knights still have to secure a total of $54 million by June 30th.

PUBLIC SAFETY

4/27/12 Nasa Using Technology to Better Track Severe Storms (12:00 p.m., 0:24)

In our community we have seen the devastation a tornado can leave behind. Now NASA has launched a new satellite used to track tornadoes. Meteorologist Al Conklin talked with Dr. Kathryn Sullivan, NOAA Deputy Administrator & Chief Scientist, and Tim Samaras, engineer and storm chaser.

5/4/12 Woman falls to lottery scam, loses $10,000 (10:00 p.m., 1:52)

5/6/12 (5:00 a.m., 1:52)

Diane Mattingly is not a wealthy woman... From time to time she enters contests and lotteries... That's why it didn't seem too far-fetched back in March when she got a phone call from a man who said she had won... Eventually they started asking her to wire them some money. They told her she'd be paying the taxes on her winnings... Before she knew it she sent them $9,000 and had racked up hundreds of dollars in phone bills... If you have to pay money to get your winnings, it's probably a scam. Plus, much of the money Diane wired was sent to Jamaica... Diane has kept her documents and she's contacted the FBI and local Sheriff.

5/9/12 New Book Teaches Internet Identity Protection (5:30 p.m., 3:42)

During one week, Theresa Payton got so many "help me" calls from family and friends asking her how to fix simple social media and internet concerns she thought she should write a book. When she shared that story with her friend Ted Claypoole he said he was thinking of doing the same thing. The two decided to team up and together they wrote "Protecting Your Internet Identity - Are You Naked Online?"

5/13/12 Beware of Spammers on Pinterest (5:00 a.m., 1:40)

We know the spammers and scammers go where the people are and right now Pinterest is where to find them. However, you don't have to get pinned down by the spammers and scanners... WBTV's cyber expert Theresa Payton has some advice on HOW IT WORKS and HOW TO PROTECT YOURSELF.

5/14/12 The Truth Behind Electronics on Flights (5:00 a.m., 1:24) (6:00 a.m., 1:24)

Now the government is reviewing whether to allow digital devices such as tablets, e-readers and music players during takeoffs and landings... Many of the rules today were reinforced during a study conducted by Carnegie Mellon University who tested out the, "T-PEDS" or transmitting personal electronic devices, and the theory of whether digital devices could cause a problem... WBTV's cyber expert, Theresa Payton, explains the issues and also a ray of hope that a new approach may be on the way

5/16/12 Security Flaw in Skype (5:00 p.m., 0:51)

We just learned that Skype has known about a security bug that shows your IP address, which can let someone track you and your account down to the city level. One group claims Skype has known about this for 18 months. WBTV Cyber Expert Theresa Payton shares what she knows... and what you can do.

5/18/12 Proper Disposal of Prescription Drugs and Other Medicine (5:00 p.m. 0:31) 5/20/12 (5:00 a.m., 0:31)

Ask most people how they dispose of their unused or expired prescription drugs and they'll tell you they toss them... The best way is to take them to a location that can incinerate the drugs... Executive Director of the Catawba Riverkeeper Foundation Richard Gaskins is on a mission to encourage people to stop flushing their drugs because it's so difficult to get those low levels of chemicals out of the water when it is treated and becomes part of the system which includes our drinking water.

5/25/12 Texting Becomes an Addiction for Many Teens (5:00 p.m., 0:33)

5/27/12 (5:00 a.m., 0:33)

Doctors say phone obsession is serious and has to stop. On top of just being a major time consumer, cell phones make it easy for children to be targeted by predators and bullies. Sexting, even at a young age, is also a problem. The doctor says parents need to be parents, not popular, and learn to say no.

5/26/12 Food Allergies and Kids (7:00 a.m., 1:40)

Parents who have children with food allergies know the kind of stress they experience every time a child is at school, a birthday party, a restaurant or anytime they eat. Dr. Maeve O'Connor visited WBTV News Saturday Morning to talk about the most common food allergies, how to avoid an allergic reaction, and the types of questions parents can ask the people in their child's life to ensure their safety.

6/3/12 CDC Urges Preparedness for "Zombie Apocalypse" (11:00 p.m., 0:54)

6/4/12 (6:00 a.m., 0:54)

In a social media section of their website, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta urges people to be prepared for an invasion of the walking dead...the CDC urges people to get a supply of water, food, and medical items ready in case the worst should happen. The urging sounds very similar to the same warnings about natural disasters. Which is exactly what CDC intended with the site. They've used an imaginary spoof to get people to prepare for actual disasters.

6/11/12 BBB Warns Parents and Grads about Summer Job Scams (5:00 p.m., 0:42)

The Better Business Bureau is warning students and their parents about common job scams. The Internet is brimming with employment ads that lure in thousands of young job seekers with the promise of good-paying jobs. Often times, these offers are more likely to be scams, than actual jobs. The BBB has ten tips to offer to tell if the job is real, or a scam.

SOCIAL; HUMAN SERVICES

4/6/12 Changes to Sunscreen Packaging Rules (5:00 p.m., 1:10)

4/8/12 (10:00 p.m., 1:10)

When faced with a wall full of different types and brands of sunscreen in your local store, it's hard to know which is the best to choose...The FDA is mandating that all sunscreens, makeup or lotion which make an SPF claim have standardized wording and labeling that is very specific.

4/7/12 Making Your Refrigerator "Weight-Loss Friendly" (7:00 a.m., 1:45)

When we think about Spring cleaning we're not usually thinking about our refrigerator. However, the staff at Weight Watchers say that's the perfect time to give your fridge an overhaul. Consumer reporter Kristen Miranda talks with Weight Watcher Leader Lori Pratt for some tips to make your refrigerator "weight-loss friendly."

4/20/12 Unfair punishment in Lancaster County School District?(5:30 p.m., 1:52)

One mother claims the Lancaster County School district wasn't fair when it came to punishing her child... The incident was caught on surveillance camera. The principal declared the two boys were horse playing and didn't discipline the student... The mother complained to the school district but nothing has happened... The mother has now filed a complaint with the US Department of Education Office of Civil Rights.

5/9/12 A Girls Night Out to Benefit Charity (5:30 p.m., 1:08)

5/12/12 (6:00 a.m., 1:08)

Ladies don't usually need a reason to get together for some networking, cocktails, and a little talk about fashion. Still, they'll have a really good reason for all of that on Thursday, May 17th. That's Girls Night Out at the Fillmore at the Music Factory. It benefits the Ronald McDonald House. Melissa Lamkin who is coordinating the event visited WBTV News Saturday Morning and talked to Kristen and Ashley about the event and how women can participate.

5/11/12 Family's Unexpected News Inspires Action (6:00 a.m., 0:51)

Nancy Perri's husband was diagnosed with a rare brain tumor. It's called an oligodendroglioma and required a considerable amount of treatment. Doctors told her because it's so rare, and considered a "good" kind of tumor to have because it's treatable, there isn't much awareness or funding for it. Nancy decided to start a foundation to create awareness and help pay to expand clinical trials for a tumor vaccine.

6/5/12 State to Help Victims of Forced Sterilization (11:00 p.m., 2:25)

Earlier this year, a series of state sponsored hearings on the issue of government ordered sterilizations forced public conversations... State Lawmakers want to pay victims 50 thousand dollars each. It would be a tax-free lump sum payment. Many victims says no amount of money could ever fix what was done to them.

6/7/12 Homeless Abandoned Teen Bound for Harvard (4:00 p.m., 0:51)

18 year old Dawn Loggins has an amazing story to tell. She has been homeless, abandoned by her parents, and called a high school dropout. But she didn't let those challenges stop her from living her dream of one day attending an Ivy League University. She was accepted to Harvard University. She said her motivation came from her experiences.

6/8/12 Salisbury principal retiring after 32 years at same school (10:00 p.m., 1:31) 6/9/12 (5:00 a.m., 1:31) (6:00 a.m., 1:31)

Tomorrow Salisbury High School will graduate 175 seniors and one principal. After 32 years, Dr Eagle is retiring. From bringing the first computers to Salisbury High to seeing that technology explode in the last few years, Eagle has seen his share of change. Now it's time for him to change. Concord Mayor Scott Padgett says the plant will generate enough energy to power 7,700 homes...Now, landfill companies have found ways to convert landfill gas into electricity...The new state-of-the art plant is run by Foristar energy which specializes in delivering clean energy.

WBTV EDITORIALS, 2Q 2012:

"Speak Out" is an expression of opinion from the Editorial Board of WBTV, and is presented by General Manager, Nick Simonette. WBTV's Speak Out Editorials air two-times per week in various Newscasts.

WBTV Speak Out: Easter Passover Promise

Each year as Spring arrives, we breathe a sigh of relief that dark winter days are over once again. And while we're happy to see warmer, longer days, we realize that many in our community are still struggling with personal and financial problems. Which brings us to Passover and Easter. These two religious holidays are all about hope for today and the promise of better times ahead. Beginning Friday, members of our Jewish community will recall the faith of their forefathers and God's protection as the Passover celebration begins. And on Sunday, Christians around the world will remember that Jesus Christ died on the cross as atonement for our sins. And was then resurrected, so that those who believe in Him may have life everlasting. Granted, celebrating these holidays will not make all of our problems suddenly disappear. But Easter and Passover remind us that there is a greater power we can turn to for strength, guidance, and comfort. We know that, over time, good will win out, evil cannot prevail, and ultimately, a better life lies ahead. We understand that all of our viewers may not share these particular beliefs. Regardless, we do want to wish all of you peace, joy, and happiness in your lives. May you find great hope and comfort this weekend and beyond.

WBTB Speak Out: "Speak Out -- What's on Your Mind?"

A little history, if you'll indulge us. WBTB was the first television station in the Carolinas to sign on the air, in July of 1949, and we're the longest-running TV station between Richmond and Atlanta. In addition to bringing you news and entertainment, one of our key objectives is discussing with you the important issues of our community. To that end, we began "WBTB SpeakOut" as an expression of opinion from our Editorial Board. Our Board consists of about a dozen employees of varying ages, genders, races, and job responsibilities. Over the last four years, the Editorial Board has presented many topics for your consideration. We've encouraged you to think about what's going on in our region, and how you might get involved. Many of you have reached out to us via e-mail or with a phone call, sharing your opinions and suggestions. We love hearing from you. And we're proud to say that SpeakOut is now a part of the social media world. You can share your opinions (in 140 characters or less) with us on Twitter. Our official Twitter name is "@WBTBSpeakOut" and our hash-tag is "#WBTBEditorial." So whether it's by phone, e-mail, or now via Twitter, we look forward to hearing from you. We're sure you've got a lot to say.

WBTB Speak Out: Bring Back the Hornets Name

Since the Charlotte Bobcats started play in 2004 as an expansion team, the club has consistently been at the bottom in league attendance. Even with an ownership change, the numbers still look bleak. Recently, the team offered free tickets to those in the stands if a Bobcat made a 3-point shot during the 4th Quarter. Boy, have times changed. Not too long ago this city owned attendance records -- for seven years in a row we led the NBA. So now, we say bring "THE HIVE" back where it belongs. We support the "We Beelieve" campaign that's taken flight on Facebook. These are not Bob's Cats anymore, and we hope Michael Jordan will fight along with us to bring the "Hornets" name back to Charlotte. The name has real meaning for us locally. Our city fought hard to keep the British at bay during the Revolutionary War, prompting a British commander to say they fought like "a veritable nest of hornets." You still see plenty of Hornets apparel on the backs of Charlotteans. The purple and teal could be the remedy that gets fans back in the seats at Time Warner Cable Arena. Of course, winning a game or two might also help put bodies in those seats.

WBTB Speak Out: Challenge to New CMS Superintendent

Here we go again -- another transition within the school system. The Charlotte-Mecklenburg School Board unanimously agreed Dr. Heath Morrison should be the next Superintendent. Out of the nearly 90 candidates who applied for the job, Morrison emerged as the top pick. To Dr. Morrison, we say "Welcome," and "you have your work cut out for you." A new superintendent is coming to the district at a time when there is unrest throughout the community. Neighbors on the south side of town want to break away and form their own school district... teachers still don't trust the administration... and many are still angry that CMS closed several schools last year. We believe the new superintendent must hit the ground running...put out all those fires so that the district can be great again. Dr. Morrison said he wants to rebuild trust. He says that in order for that to happen he must "communicate with the public and be honest." Those are his exact words. So, it's up to each of you to hold him accountable. Let Dr. Morrison know you expect an increase in CMS' graduation rate...you demand academic achievement for all students...and you want equitable resources at all schools. You and the School Board are, in essence, Dr. Morrison's bosses. Your tax dollars are helping pay his salary, which could top 300 thousand dollars a year. Let him know early and often if he's getting the job done. We believe a school district can only be great if the entire community chips in.

WBTB Speak Out: Charlotte Veterans Employment Initiative

There are over 3,000 veterans in Mecklenburg County who need a job right now, but can't find one. More will be pouring in soon from overseas. All of them have risked their lives for our country, and when they come home, the least we can do is help them find a way to make a decent living. Too often, that's not the case, and we can't just blame a tough economy. Some veterans tell us they fight discrimination when applying for civilian jobs. And every year, more than 1,000 active-duty troops complain of being denied positions by employers because of their military obligations, despite the fact that it's illegal to do so. Corporations should be supporting our vets, not hindering them. Thankfully, here in Charlotte, some have just committed to do so. A group of local companies and nonprofits say they want to raise $1 million by Memorial Day to help vets find work. It's called the Charlotte Veterans Employment Initiative, and the money will be used for both training and placement. Wells Fargo and Goodrich are driving the effort - and we commend them. They're also issuing a challenge for others to help, with monetary contributions or job opportunities. We hope you'll consider it.

WBTB Speak Out: Fuzzy Math

There's a new type of math being discussed in Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools... and it's driving us crazy. Now listen to this math word problem and see if you can figure it out: "If a high school student does absolutely nothing in class, turns in no assignments, and gets a '0' on a test... That student's grade should be...what?" "Zero," right? Wrong! The answer could be "50 points." That's right... 50 points. Now how crazy is that? That's what we call "fuzzy math." "50" could be the lowest grade a student can receive. Now here's the rationale: North Carolina is getting ready to overhaul its education system. CMS thinks now is the time to look over the district's grading procedures in high schools and review how students get promoted to the next grade. Some proponents think by making 50 the lowest possible grade, failing students may be motivated to not give up - thinking they still could pass the class. Now we get that. BUT, stick to the old math - where zero equals zero. Let students earn their way out of a failure; don't reward them for making no effort. CMS is now getting feedback from teachers about the concept. While they're still in the input phase, please remind the district that a "0" is NOT a "50," any more than a "50" is a "100." We hope this idea won't pass the reality test.

WBTB Speak Out: Hidden Taxes and Fees

Have you looked at your water and phone bills recently? No, I mean really looked at them...line by line. Well, two of our viewers did that and what they found is both surprising and very troubling. Mr. Wuertemberger was upset that while he was charged $8.82 for his water usage – a fair price – his total bill was actually sixty-one dollars and fourteen cents. In addition to his water usage, there's a "Sewer Usage" charge of almost $29. So, it costs him three times as much to remove the water from his house as it does to bring it in. You could argue that price is well worth it. But, on top of those usage charges, there are additional "Water Fees" and "Sewer Fees." And you probably heard, the Utilities Department just requested a rate increase which would cost the average user another 3 and a half bucks per month. Finally, he's charged a ten dollar "Storm Water Fee," simply because it rains on his yard. And here's Mr. Brock's home phone bill. $15.60 for his residential line...not so bad. But then, add a mandatory "Protection Plus" charge... an "Access Charge Per FCC Order... 911 Service... TWO Federal Universal Service Fees... And so on until his $15.60 for phone usage ends up as a $36.71 bill. The point is, in addition to all of the taxes you know about, you may pay that much more in "hidden" taxes, fees.

WBTB Speak Out: A Memorial Day Tribute

The history of our nation is anchored, for better or worse, around the wars in which we've fought. America was forged through muskets and bayonets of our Revolutionary War battles with Great Britain. We fought the Brits again in 1812, and took on the Spanish at the end of the 19th Century. We turned brother against brother in our own Civil War – the bloodiest of all American conflicts. And in 1917, we fought "The War to End All Wars": World War I. Sadly, that proved not to be the case. We challenged man's undeniable cruelty to man in World War II. And as we ended that horrific war, we introduced a new, and sometimes frightening, nuclear age. We fought in Korea...and in Vietnam...and more recently, Iraq and Afghanistan. We fight for freedom – both our own and for others around the world. We fight tyranny and oppression for those who can't fight for themselves. Ironically, we fight to make the world a safer place for all peoples. But, of course, the principles to which we adhere come at a price: too many lives of our finest young men and women. For Memorial Day 2012, we encourage you to remember those who have made the ultimate sacrifice so that others may live in liberty. Let the chimes of freedom ring for these American heroes.

WBTB Speak Out: Graduates, Find Your Passion

It's graduation season once again. And for you seniors, this time of transition offers many options that will shape the rest of your lives. You may be going off to college with dreams of being a doctor or a lawyer. Or, you may be leaving without a clue as to what you want to do for the rest of your life. We want to encourage you to truly take the time to find a career you love. For instance, do like to fix things or are you more comfortable sitting at a desk? Do you like excitement in your daily life or do you prefer a routine? Do you like computers or is working with your hands more to your liking? Today, you will find more places than ever to explore your talents and temperament...places not far from home. We say start right here in your own community. Charlotte offers one of the best community colleges in the nation...one of the best culinary schools in the nation...trade schools with computer and medical technology...as well as nursing classes, criminal justice and welding classes, to name just a few. In the end, when you are through exploring, you can honestly say that you found a career. More importantly though, you can say that you discovered your passion. You may even want an internship in television. At WBTV, we are always looking for great people. So, good luck in exploring!

WBTV Speak Out: Charlotte - "World Class City"

If you've lived around here for the last 30 years, you've probably heard talk of Charlotte becoming a "World Class City." Well, over the past decade, we've shown signs of that becoming a reality. We have a vibrant up town area, major league sports franchises, and we're hosting the 2012 Democratic National Convention. Charlotte-Douglas International Airport is now the sixth busiest in the world. And the Charlotte metro area is the fastest-growing urban region* in the nation over the last ten years. But let's not kid ourselves. Becoming an ever-larger city is going to bring with it some headaches. Our highways are bumper-to-bumper and getting worse. We've already faced water rationing. Crime statistics are up, and revenues are down. And our school system is facing some major challenges. The more competition there is for jobs, services, and resources, the more likely tempers will flare. No doubt other large cities have faced these same issues as they've grown. And, hopefully, we'll be up to the task. We'll need some visionary planning...and cooperation between Charlotte and its surrounding communities. And it's not going to come cheaply. There's no problem with a city daring to dream. But how we rise to the challenges – and how we treat each other along the way – will ultimately determine whether or not Charlotte truly is a "World Class City."

WBTV Speak Out: Flag Day - Pledge of Allegiance

Tomorrow is Flag Day – a day we set aside to honor the symbol of our great nation. One way we've traditionally saluted the "Stars and Stripes" is through The Pledge of Allegiance. It's engrained in us from our early days in elementary school. The Pledge is short and sweet – just 31 words...takes about 12 seconds to say. It was originally written by Mr. Francis Bellamy in 1892. Mr. Bellamy hoped to inspire a renewed sense of pride in our country, something which had ebbed since the Civil War. Furthermore, he felt it was important to instill in our children a feeling of respect and patriotism. We would hope that Americans of all ages still feel that way today. The Pledge has been amended four times through the years – to make it America-specific and to include the words "under God." It was formally adopted by Congress in 1942, and reached its current wording in 1954. So, when was the last time YOU pledged YOUR allegiance to the flag? Well if you're so inclined, we invite you to say it along with us now. But even if not, please remember our flag tomorrow and the people, history, and the spirit it represents. "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

WBTB Speak Out: Choose Your College Curriculum Wisely

"What is a college education really worth?" Well that's the title of a recent Washington Post article that proves once again that most things are what you make of them. It cited a 2012 survey of more than 700 colleges which revealed some startling statistics. Only 4% of schools require students to take a basic economics class. Little more than a quarter of public – and only 5% of private – colleges and institutions require a single overview course of American history or government. And only 61% require students take a college-level math course. Many executives routinely complain about the lack of reading, writing and math skills in the recent graduates they hire. These graduates have spent small fortunes and several years at institutions meant to prepare them for a future – and yet that goal may not be met. Students, don't let that happen to you. Take responsibility for your education and look closely at your course selections. Consider the career you are interested in pursuing and then talk to some folks who work in the field. If you are undecided, choose courses that will give you a strong foundation – no matter what career you choose to pursue. College is a time to assert your independence. But with greater freedom comes greater responsibility. Your tuition is an investment. Make sure it will pay off for you in the future.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

04/07/12      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Family's Honor" In October of 2009, 20-year-old Noor Almaleki and Amal Khalaf, the mother of her boyfriend Marwan, walked out of a Peoria, Arizona DES office and were struck by an SUV driven by Noor's father and Iraqi immigrant, Faleh Hassan Almaleki. Detective Chris Boughcy suspected this to be an "honor killing". Honor killing is a practice found in some cultures, that allows a father to kill his daughter if he believes she acted in a dishonorable or disrespectful way. Amal Khalaf survived; however, Noor died from her injuries. The Almaleki family had moved from Iraq to Arizona in the mid 1990's, and Faleh wanted his children to adhere to Iraqi traditions -- but Noor wanted to be a typical American girl. She had been brought back to Iraq to enter an arranged marriage when she was 17, but she left the marriage, returned to the United States, and eventually moved in with her boyfriend, Marwan Khalaf and his mother Amal. Noor's parents made numerous verbal threats to her to return home, but she refused. Soon afterwards, her father struck her with his SUV. Faleh fled the country, but was later apprehended in London, and returned to the United States. He claimed that hitting the two women was an accident, but evidence of incriminating tire marks at the scene and the fact that the vehicle had no brake problems, seemed to indicate otherwise. However, these facts and other incriminating evidence were not enough to convince a jury that Noor's father was guilty of first degree murder. Instead, the jury found Faleh guilty of the lesser charge of second-degree murder, meaning they did not agree the attack on Noor was premeditated, or an honor killing. Judge Roland Steinle sentenced Faleh to 34-and-a-half years in prison for killing Noor and gravely injuring Amal. On-Screen Graphics: While members of Noor's family were questioned about the crime, no one other than her father was charged. Interviewed: Peoria, Arizona Police Detective Chris Boughcy; CBS News Consultant Abigail Pesta; Adhi, Noor's friend; Amal Khalaf, Noor's boyfriend's mother; Marwan Khalaf, Noor's boyfriend; Nuha, Noor's friend; Jasvinder Sanghera, founder, Karma Nirvana; Lina, Karma Nirvana caller; Laura Reckart, prosecutor; Elizabeth Mullins, defense attorney; Jeff Kirchler, defense attorney; Charles Cooper, witness; Shaneil Nakamoto, witness; Ali, Noor's brother. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

04/14/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Stranger Beside Me" - On March 18, 2010, Jamie Laiaddee vanished from her home in a suburb of Phoenix, Arizona. Her live-in boyfriend Bryan Stewart told everyone she had moved to Denver, Colorado to take a new job. When detectives started searching for Jamie, they discovered Bryan was a con man, and suspected he was also her killer. Jamie and Bryan met through a University of Michigan Alumni Club, and dated for more than two years. Bryan lied to Jamie about most of his life. His real name was Rick Wayne Valentini; he never attended the University of Michigan; he served two years in military prison; and he had three ex-wives and two daughters. When detectives searched Bryan/Rick's apartment they found Jamie's wallet and a small white envelope containing Jamie's driver's license, some credit cards, and her University of Michigan Alumni card, cut up into pieces. Moreover, Bryan/Rick was using her credit cards for online dating websites. He continued to claim Jamie took $100,000 and moved to Colorado for a new job, but this claim was dismissed after Jamie's new boss showed up in court detailing how he had just hired Jamie - in Arizona. A jailhouse snitch took the stand and said Bryan/Rick told him that the police knew he killed Jamie. Bryan/Rick testified last and claimed he and Jamie communicated via e-mail and telephone after her disappearance, but the prosecution forced him to admit he had not seen or spoken to her. On March 24, 2011, a Grand Jury indicted Bryan/Rick on charges of second-degree murder of his girlfriend, Jamie Laiaddee. He was also charged with fraud for using her credit cards without her permission. On-Screen Graphics: Bryan Stewart is now inmate 268586 and is known to his jailers as Rick Wayne Valentini. His sentence for murder and fraud: 54 years. Interviewed: Sheila Dubs, Gweneth Newman and Jennifer Langguth, Jamie's college friends; Vunnee and Jimmy Laiaddee, Jamie's parents; Marlene Buffa, University of Michigan Alumni Group President; Burke Files, private investigator; Troy Spielman, detective; Nate Moffat, detective; Juan Martinez, prosecutor; Andrea Aardsma, witness; Kevin Tierney, who would have been Jamie's new boss; David Beauchamp, lawyer; Valerie Shafer, juror; Max Covil, attorney; Leon Lead, juror. 48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Mystery on Twin Peaks Drive" - a report on the December 16, 1998 death of Ronda Reynolds, whose husband found her lifeless body with a gunshot wound to the head in her home on Twin Peaks Drive in Toledo, Washington. The death was quickly ruled a suicide. Refusing to accept the findings, Ronda's mother, Barb Thompson, launched her own investigation. She enlisted the help of world-famous true crime writer Ann Rule, who eventually wrote the bestseller "In the Still of the Night", about the case. Their investigation led Washington State authorities to revisit the case by holding a coroner's inquest -- a rare and unusual proceeding -- to determine the cause of death and who might be responsible. The inquest resulted in the death being reclassified as a homicide and it determined that she had died at the hands of either her husband Ronald A. Reynolds and/or Ronald's son, Jonathan A. Reynolds. However, the Lewis County prosecutor announced he would not prosecute either man because most of the evidence had been destroyed after Ronda's death. The case remains an open investigation. On Screen Text graphic: The Reynolds family is contemplating suing Barb Thompson, Ann Rule and the Lewis County Coroner. Changes were proposed to Washington State's law following the Reynold's case. A judge or prosecutor would have to approve any coroner's arrest warrant. Interviewed: Barb Thompson, Ronda Reynolds' mother; Ann Rule, author; Ron Reynolds, husband; Jonathan Reynolds, Ron Reynolds' son from a previous marriage; Detective Jerry Berry and Detective Sergeant Glade Austin, members of the Lewis County Sheriff's Department; Coroner Warren McLeod. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Death Wish" - a report on questions surrounding the July 2009 death of Jeffrey Locker, whose body was found slumped over the steering wheel of his car in Harlem, New York. Initially, it appeared that Locker had simply been in the wrong place at the wrong time; however, when authorities tracked Locker's ATM card to Kenneth Minor and questioned him, Minor said Locker had begged Minor to kill him. 48 HOURS MYSTERY interviewed Minor in depth and he described how Locker was circling around a block in Harlem and approached Minor about how to find a gun. Then, Locker told Minor that he wanted him to shoot him. Minor asked for $60, went to buy drugs, and later called Locker and told him he couldn't find a gun. Minor questioned Locker as to why he needed Minor to kill him and Locker explained that he wanted his family to collect millions from his life insurance policies and if he committed suicide, there was no payment on the policy. Furthermore he told Minor how he was caught in a Ponzi scheme and had several lawsuits against him. Minor was promised money from Locker if he helped to kill him, and Locker gave him his ATM card and PIN. As they sat in Locker's car, Minor was asked to get a knife out of the glove compartment, and Locker asked him to hold it at the steering wheel, and Locker lunged at the knife numerous times, killing himself. To help prove Minor's story, his defense lawyer found another man, Melvin Fleming, who said Locker had approached him days prior, with the same request. Instead, Fleming decided to con Locker and did not help him. During Minor's trial, the defense argued that this was a case of assisted suicide. Evidence revealed during the trial highlighted Locker's severe financial troubles, pending lawsuits, and most notably, a multimillion-dollar life insurance policy that Locker had purchased months before his death. The prosecution challenged the assisted suicide claim and argued that Minor was simply a cold-blooded killer. After hours of deliberation, Minor was found guilty of murder and sentenced to 20 years to life. On-Screen Graphics: Locker's widow is suing to get $4 million worth of life insurance from a policy he bought a month-and-a-half before his death. As for the other $8 million in policies, the insurance companies refuse to say whether they paid the family. Interviewed: Robert Stewart, NYPD detective; Laura Italiano, New York Post reporter; Steve D'Annunzio, Locker's friend; Robert Miller, insurance executive; Al Brodbeck, who hired Locker as a business coach; Kevin Flynn and Jeff Hershtman, detectives; Kenneth Minor, murder suspect; Dan Gotlin, Minor's defense lawyer; Melvin Fleming, Harlem resident; Murray Weiss, police reporter and CBS News Consultant; Peter Casolaro, prosecutor; Michael Barry, investigator; Cyril Wecht, forensic scientist; Kirt Markle, jury member. "What They Believe" - a report on the deep traditions, beliefs, and interesting spiritual histories of three religions not well known in the United States -- Hinduism, Zoroastrianism, and the Bahá'í faith. (1) Hinduism is the world's oldest faith tradition that does not have a prophet, a common creed, or doctrine. North America is home to an estimated 1.5 million Hindus, with the majority of adherents living in India. (2) Zoroastrianism is a 3,500-year-old faith tradition based on the teachings of the prophet Zarathustra in ancient Persia, now Iran. Zoroastrians believe in one God (monotheism) and that through the acts of good thoughts, words, and deeds one can triumph over evil. Their population was once in the millions, but today it is estimated at about 125,000 worldwide with an estimated 25,000 Zoroastrians in the United States. (3) The Bahá'í faith was founded by Bahá'u'lláh in 19th-century Persia (now Iran). Bahá'ís believe that there is only one religion which has been progressively revealed by a series of Divine Messengers of which their prophet, Bahá'u'lláh, is said to be the latest in a succession that includes Krishna, Abraham, Zoroaster, Moses, Buddha, Christ and Mohammed. Includes comments from: John H. Hawley, Professor of Religion, Barnard College; Anand Venkatkrishnan, Columbia University, Doctoral Student of Religion; Dr. Uma Mysorekar, President, Hindu Temple Society of North America; members of the Rivetna family: Rohinton Rivetna, Founder & Former President, Federation of the Zoroastrian Association of North America (FEZANA); his wife, Roshan Rivetna, Former Editor of Fezana, a publication dedicated to Zoroastrianism in North America; and their son Cyrus Rivetna, an architect; Glen Fullmer, Director of Communications, Bahá'í National Center; Scott Conrad, Project Manager, Bahá'í Temple Restoration. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

05/05/12      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Writing on the Wall" - a report on the investigation into the May 5, 2009 murders of the wife and two children of Christopher Coleman, the security chief for televangelist Joyce Meyer Ministries. In Columbia, Illinois on the morning of May 5, Coleman called his neighbor, police detective Justin Barlow, and asked him to check on his wife, Sheri, and their two young sons, Gavin and Garrett, after his own calls had gone unanswered. In months prior he had made local police aware of explicit death threats he was receiving regarding his involvement in Meyer's ministry. Barlow entered the house that morning through an unlocked basement window and upon entry he found spray-painted messages on the walls, with the phrases "you have paid" and "punished", and when he went upstairs he discovered the bodies of Coleman's family strangled to death in each of their beds. An investigation began and soon after police discovered Coleman was having a serious affair with cocktail waitress Tara Lintz, a high school friend of Sheri's. Sheri's friends came to her defense telling police Sheri said her husband was having an affair and if anything happened to her, Chris did it. Moreover, the crime scene lab found the handwriting on the wall matched up to Coleman's script. Two weeks after the murders police had enough evidence to charge Coleman with first-degree murder of his family. The trial for Coleman began two years later and the prosecution's computer experts discovered the e-mail threats came from Coleman's laptop, and one can of the spray paint used on the walls of his house was purchased at a local hardware store with a computerized signature linked to Coleman. The jury needed more evidence though, and it came from one of the jurors who noticed the date on a picture of Coleman and Lintz kissing which proved Coleman lied to them about when the affair began. After a guilty verdict, the judge sentenced Coleman to life in prison. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke to Coleman by phone and he denied planning to divorce Sheri to marry his mistress and said he did not know who murdered his family. On Screen Text Graphics: Sheri's family is suing Joyce Meyer Ministries. They claim the murders might have been prevented if the Ministries had investigated the threats more seriously. May 5th is the three-year anniversary of the murders of Sheri, Garrett and Gavin Coleman. Interviewed: Chris Coleman; Justin Barlow, detective; Joe Edwards, Columbia Police Chief; Major Jeff Connor, Major Case Squad, St. Louis; Vanessa Riegerix, neighbor; Nick Pistor, St. Louis Post-Dispatch reporter; Kathy LaPlante, Sheri's friend; Angela DiCiccio, Sheri's mother; Meegan Tumbcaugh, Sheri's friend; Connie and Ron Coleman, Chris' parents; Ed Parkinson, prosecutor; Bill Margulis, Chris's lawyer; Gina West, juror; Olivia Shopinski, juror; Jonece Pearman, jury foreperson. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Ransom" - a report on the mysterious 2008 disappearance of Robert Wiles, the son of millionaire business owner Tom Wiles, who received an e-mail ransom note demanding $750,000 for the safe return of the 26-year-old, who had been working at the family business, National Flight Services in Lakeland, Florida, an aircraft maintenance company with offices and clients worldwide. On April 3, Tom Wiles opened an e-mail from his son Robert. It was a ransom demand signed, "Group X", and asked for Tom to put $750,000 in Robert's office if he ever wanted to see his son alive again. Robert was last seen by his co-worker Stobert (Toby) Holt on April 1, 2008, and the kidnappers set a deadline of April 8th to receive the money. Tom involved the FBI with the ransom note, and when Tom arrived in Florida they set up a sting operation in Robert's office to try to find out who the kidnappers were. After monitoring a box placed in Robert's office filled with coffee that weighed the same as $750,000, days started to pass by with no one entering the room. Toby Holt, Operations Manager, was handpicked by Tom to assist the FBI in monitoring Robert's office. There were no leads in the case until agents tracked Robert's phone records to see which cell towers were used, and this lead them to subpoena the Florida Turnpike Authority to view video of toll booths on the Polk Parkway. When Tom viewed the tape, he recognized Toby Holt's car pass through a toll. In the picture Toby's right arm looks to be in a position of holding a phone, and when agents went through Holt's phone record, it showed his number was not in use while going through the tolls, piquing the FBI's interest. This is when the investigation, which had been focused on the Wiles' family and an alcoholic ex-employee, Steve Lindsey, turned solely towards Toby Holt. When agents brought Holt in for questioning they determined his whereabouts on the night of Robert's disappearance were unsubstantiated and he lied when he said he didn't have any guns in his car when they found a handgun under the hood. Moreover, Holt was cheating on his wife with at least a dozen women. The FBI called in reinforcements to help move along the case with local police and detectives, and this group discovered Holt and Robert's phones were traveling together to make for a good circumstantial case. On December 19, 2009 agents arrested Toby Holt for extortion, kidnapping, and first-degree murder. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke with Holt while he was in South County Jail through television cameras and monitors, and he maintained his innocence. The trial opened in January 2012 and the prosecution used phone records as evidence in addition to work e-mails, showcasing a contentious relationship between Robert and Holt as a motive. Holt's lawyer said he was taking a sip of Diet Dr. Pepper when the photo was taken of him going through the toll booth, not using a phone; he pinned everything on ex-worker Steve Lindsey. However, Steve Lindsey died of lung cancer while the case was under investigation. The jury spent four hours deliberating and the judge read, "...the defendant is guilty of manslaughter." Holt was sentenced to 30 years in prison for manslaughter and extortion. Robert's body has yet to be found. On Screen Text Graphics: Toby Holt is appealing his conviction based on insufficient evidence. Holt is currently scheduled for release in 2039. He will be 72 years old. Interviewed: Tom Wiles, Robert's father; Andra Wiles, Robert's sister; Pamela, Robert's mother; Tierney Wiles, Robert's sister; David Palmisano, Robert's friend; Jim Bucenell, FBI Special Agent; Dan Kelly, FBI Special Agent; Janie Beard, Robert's barber; Joel Valle, airplane engine repair company owner; Tommy Ray, Florida Special Agent; Cass Castillo, prosecutor; Howardene Garrett, Assistant Public Defender; Stobert (Toby) Holt, NFS worker; Beverly Holt, Toby's ex-wife. 05/19/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "An Officer and a Hero" - a report on the October 5, 2009 botched robbery and home invasion that left off-duty St. Louis Police Officer Isabella Lovadina and her then-boyfriend, firefighter Nick Koenig grievously wounded and his cousin Gina Stallis dead. Lovadina and Koenig were taking an EMT class together in October 2009 in St. Louis, Missouri, and after class one evening they went to Nick's grandmother's house to study. When Nick walked Isabella to her car at 12:30am, she placed her gun and bulletproof vest inside and went to give Nick a hug goodbye. Two males approached them with guns drawn demanding whatever they had, and when Isabella said she didn't have anything they pointed to Nick's grandmother's house and directed them to go inside. Isabella and Nick were forced to their knees in the hallway upon entry. One of the gunmen, described as wearing a red hoodie with two gold teeth, went upstairs where Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, his Aunt Rose, his cousin Gina Stallis and her two young sons were sleeping. The gunman forced Gina to carry a large TV down the stairs and the three women were then pressured to kneel next to Nick and Isabella while the two boys were left alone. Isabella decided to lunge up against the gunman described as wearing a black hoodie and started fighting with him, while Nick fought with the other man. Rose ran out the front door and started approaching neighbor's houses for help, with no avail. Shots ring out and Isabella was struck by the man in the black hoodie five times, point blank; Nick was shot three times, and Gina suffered shots that killed her. Gina's son Sam, 9-years old at the time, called 911 and soon after police and EMT's arrived. The intruders ran away before cops arrived. Isabella and Nick were rushed to the hospital. Nick had a bullet stuck in the back of his neck, too close to the spinal cord to operate on. A short time after the robbery a man checked into the ER at Barnes Hospital across town with a gunshot wound in his hand, and the ER technician tending to him noticed his gold teeth, the red hoodie covered in blood, and told the cops immediately. Police arrived at Barnes Hospital and arrested Ledale Nathan when they identified his red hoodie, and chased the man in the black hoodie, Mario Coleman, into a park and arrested him. Police found Nick's grandmother's jewelry and a black gun tossed in the park nearby. After Isabella identified the two men they were charged with first degree murder. Nathan was 16-years old at the time of the incident but he stood trial as an adult and the jury found him guilty. Coleman's trial was next and he was also found guilty of murder. Rose Whitrock has taken custody of her grandchildren. Two and a half years after the incident Nick was in a car accident and soon after he coughed up the bullet that was lodged in his cervical spine. Isabella retired from the Police Department and at her final roll call Mayor Francis G. Slay of St. Louis proclaimed February 6, 2012 as Police Officer Isabella Lovadina day. On Screen Text Graphics: Mario Coleman and Ledale Nathan Jr. were sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. Nick hopes to one day finish the class he started and become an EMT. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "One of Their Own" - a follow-up report about how and why decorated female Los Angeles Police Detective Stephanie Lazarus was charged with the 1986 murder of Sherri Mae Rasmussen. The victim, newly married to John Ruetten, Lazarus' ex-boyfriend, was attacked, beaten and shot to death in her Los Angeles home. Police pursued a robbery motive, even though the only things missing were her car and her marriage certificate. For more than two decades, her father, Nels Rasmussen, has been on a frustrating quest to find out the truth about his daughter's murder. Believing that Sherri's husband, John Ruetten, was not involved, he says he has tried many times to get the police to focus on John's ex-girlfriend Stephanie Lazarus. Sherri had told her family that Stephanie was still obsessed with John and believed that Sherri had stolen John away from her. Recently, the LAPD cold case squad quietly re-opened the case. A piece of evidence -- a saliva sample taken from a bite mark on Sherri's arm -- was sent to a DNA lab. The results indicated that it belonged to a woman, and led police to suspect one of their own: Stephanie Lazarus. Finally Nels Rasmussen felt that police were listening to him. Detectives trailed Stephanie Lazarus to obtain a DNA sample and the results were stunning: the DNA from Sherri's bite mark and that of Stephanie Lazarus matched. In a covert operation, a team planned her arrest and in June 2009, Lazarus was charged with first-degree murder. Her trial is expected to begin shortly. 05/22/10 onscreen text graphic: If convicted, Stephanie Lazarus could face life in prison. A judge ruled out the death penalty. 07/19/11 updated onscreen text graphic: Stephanie Lazarus's trial is set for August. The 05/26/12 follow-up covers the trial of Stephanie Lazarus: The defense maintained the DNA evidence was mishandled for two decades while prosecutors still had a strong circumstantial case. After four weeks and over 60 witnesses, Lazarus was found guilty. At her sentencing Sherri's mother, sister, and husband spoke to the court describing their own pain and highlighting the type of person Sherri Mae Rasmussen was. John Ruetten apologized to the Rasmussen family, feeling particularly sorry it was someone connected to him who committed the murder. A judge sentenced Lazarus to 27 years to life in the state penitentiary with a chance of parole after 16 years. On Screen Text Graphic for the 05/26/12 follow-up: The Rasmussen's sued the LAPD for covering up a murder committed by one of their own. A judge dismissed the case. The family is appealing that decision. Interviewed: Andrew Blankstein and Joel Rubin, LA Times reporters; Sherri's sister Teresa Lane; Nels and Loretta Rasmussen, Sherri's parents; Jayne Goldberg and Peggy Crabtree, Sherri's friends; Mark Overland, Lazarus' attorney; John Taylor, the Rasmussen's attorney; Alan Tarsky, Sherri's neighbor; Burt Luper, a retired LAPD detective who is now on Lazarus' defense team; Steven Lazarus, Stephanie's brother. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

05/29/12      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder In The OC" (10:00-11:00p) - an updated rebroadcast of a report on the 1994 murder of millionaire businessman Bill McLaughlin in his Newport Beach, California home. After his divorce, McLaughlin, a devoted father and family man became involved with the much-younger Nanette Johnston, who it was later discovered, made a habit of seeking out wealthy men to date. Following the murder, police initially considered a business associate, but then focused their investigation closer to home. His ex-wife and daughters had airtight alibis. Nanette Johnston's alibi did not exactly check out: she had been at her son's soccer game with another man, Eric Naposki. McLaughlin's family, when asked, knew nothing about him, but police referred to him as Nanette's boyfriend. In his first on-camera interview regarding the case, Naposki, once a professional football player for the NFL, says that Nanette Johnston was his girlfriend in 1994, and he had his own plans of marrying her. He says that Johnston told him that McLaughlin was once her boss but had become her business partner and that there was no romantic relationship -- she had led him to believe that McLaughlin's money was her own. Though he was a suspect, police never had enough to bring the case to trial. Nanette was charged with theft, pleaded guilty, served some time, and then married and divorced several very wealthy men. Naposki moved on with his life; moving to the East Coast and becoming a personal trainer. In 2009, police called the McLaughlin family and told them they had arrested Nanette Johnson Packard McNeill and Eric Naposki for the murder. According to Naposki, the only person to profit from McLaughlin's murder was Nanette. With no fingerprints or DNA, Orange County Deputy District Attorney Matt Murphy had no problem with Naposki's attorneys blaming Johnston, but still believes Naposki pulled the trigger. After four weeks of trial, the jury convicted Naposki of murder. 10/29/11 on screen text graphic: Nanette Johnston sued the McLaughlin family soon after his murder for money she felt she was entitled to. They settled for $220,000. Eric Naposki's lawyers have filed to overturn his conviction. They argue favorable evidence was lost because prosecutors waited so long to file charges. The 05/29/12 update includes: At trial, Nanette Johnston was found guilty of murder. Eight months after his conviction, Eric Naposki contacted 48 HOURS with information which he said would reveal who really killed Bill McLaughlin. After pouring over evidence while incarcerated, he believes that Nanette arranged a hit for $50,000 with a Hollywood producer he had done business with and introduced her to. Police have investigated, but they consider the producer an unlikely suspect. Nanette Johnston was recently sentenced to life in prison. Naposki continues his appeal. On Screen Text Graphic: Eric Naposki is now scheduled to be sentenced in August. Included interviews with: Matt Murphy, Orange County Assistant District Attorney; daughters Jenny McLaughlin and Kim McLaughlin; brother Patrick McLaughlin; Don Kalal, McLaughlin's best friend; lead detective Tom Voth; Eric Naposki; Angela Licata, Naposki's sister; Dave Matthews, Leonard Jomsky, Rob Frias, friends of Eric Naposki's; Angelo McDonald, Gary Puhlsen, John Pappalardo, Naposki's defense attorneys; Larry Montgomery, investigator; Dave Byington, retired detective. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

06/02/12      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets of a Marriage" - a report on questions surrounding the apparent suicide of Jocelyn Earnest, a successful businesswoman who was found dead in her Forest, Virginia home in December 2007, from a gunshot wound to her head -- with a revolver by her side and a suicide note on the floor. Investigators believe that the scene was set up: she was shot, her body was then moved and the scene arranged to suggest a sexual assault. Also, the note mentioned financial problems and a new love. To the investigators, it did not seem like a suicide note. They also found two fingerprints on the note they say matched those of her estranged husband Wesley Earnest, who was living and working in Chesapeake, Virginia -- more than three hours away. Jocelyn and Wesley Earnest met and married in 1995. With both making good salaries, they decided to build a multi-million dollar vacation getaway home on Smith Mountain Lake; but soon after, the couple's nine-year marriage was crumbling. Wesley was seeing another woman, Shameka Wright. When Jocelyn learned about Shameka Wright, she and Wesley separated and she filed for divorce. As the divorce proceedings started, it was the lake house they fought over: she wanted it sold. Investigators say he didn't want to let it go. In fact, Wesley, who was in charge of the couple's finances, was in a fix with loans, credit card debt and a more than $6000-a-month mortgage on the lake house. Investigators thought Wesley Earnest had killed Jocelyn for money. Fifteen months after the death, another bizarre twist occurred in this case: the multi-million dollar lake house burned to the ground while Wesley Earnest was out on bond awaiting trial. Investigators believed he was involved because the huge insurance payoff would resolve a lot of debt. At his April 2010 trial, the prosecution painted Earnest as a manipulative, desperate, greedy man who staged the murder scene and typed the suicide note himself. The jury found him guilty, but a mistrial was declared when it was revealed that jurors had read Jocelyn's journals, which had been ruled inadmissible, but were mistakenly provided to the jury. Seven months later, and more than two-and-a-half years after Jocelyn Earnest's death, another trial began. Once again, Wesley Earnest was found guilty of first-degree murder. The jury recommended a sentence of life in prison plus three years. The judge agreed. Onscreen text graphic: Wesley Earnest's first appeal was denied. Earnest and Shameka Wright have ended their relationship. On screen text graphic for the 06/02/12 rebroadcast: Wesley Earnest is appealing his conviction. Earnest and Shameka Wright have ended their relationship. Included interviews with: Wesley Earnest; his mother Patricia Wimmer; his girlfriend Shameka Wright; Jocelyn Earnest's sister Laura Rogers, mother Joyce Young and father Bill Branham; Marcy Shepherd, close friend of Jocelyn's; investigators Mike Mayhew and Gary Babb; Joey Sanzone, defense lawyer; prosecutors Wes Nance and Randy Krantz; Wesley Earnest's friends Tim McGovern, Sonya Stevens; Jocelyn Earnest's friend Jennifer Kerns. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Facebook Detectives" (10:00-11:00p) - A report about three Texas housewives, Tammye Markle, Joni Shannon and Tina Wiley, who call themselves the "Facebook Detectives" and who used the Internet to try to find their friend Lisa Stone, who disappeared from her Dallas home in June 2010. The four women had been friends in high school, but now kept in touch with each other via Facebook. Lisa posted every day, and her friends became worried when she abruptly stopped posting in June 2010. They confronted Lisa's former life partner Sherry Henry, who said that Lisa was out of town. That is also what she told the police. The three friends did not believe her and feared for Lisa's safety. They formed a Facebook page dedicated to finding Lisa. One evening when Joni Shannon was going back to question Sherry Henry, she realized that Sherry was in the car next to hers and she followed her. Sherry pulled in to a 7-11 parking lot, took things out of her car and put them into a dumpster. When Sherry left, Joni examined the dumpster and found personal items which had belonged to Lisa, including her birth certificate. When the women brought this new information to the attention of the police, they agreed to take another look at the case. The police confronted Sherry Henry, who still insisted that she did not know where Lisa was. She said that Lisa had financial problems and was dependent on medication for depression. Sherry claimed she was also using cocaine. Sherry said Lisa often went off for a few days, and that is why she didn't file a missing persons report. Homicide detective Jim Gallagher believes that Lisa Stone is dead. He feels that Sherry Henry is a person of interest in the case, but does not have enough evidence against her. Sherry Henry insists she is innocent and does not know where Lisa is. Lisa's friends are continuing their investigation on Facebook. Onscreen text graphics: The Facebook Detectives have a foundation helping others to use the power and community of Facebook to find missing people. Interviewed: Tammye Markle, Tina Wiley, Joni Shannon; Sherry Henry, Juanita Burris and Susan Scott, neighbors of Lisa; Pat James, friend of Lisa; Detective Jim Gallagher of the Dallas Police Department. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Redemption Song" - a report on the 1985 death of Natalie Antonetti, a woman who was part of the Austin, Texas music community. She was found beaten at home by her son, Johnny Goodie, and remained in a coma for two weeks before she died. The police investigation at the time focused on Marty Oden, a restaurant manager and sometime male stripper, who had a track record of violence. Police just did not have enough to go on, and he was never charged. He was later convicted of an unrelated rape and sent to prison; police then considered the case closed. In 2007, Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh reopened the cold case when an anonymous call came in naming Dennis Davis, a well-known name in the Austin music scene as a suspect. Davis had dated Antonetti, and at the time had what seemed like a solid alibi. But now, his wife, Becki Davis, was the one who called the police. Detective Walsh has found several women who have become key players in the investigation: Davis' then-girlfriend Amparo Garcia-Crow is certain he was not with her on the night in question; Linda Bless, who has seen his anger; and an ex-girlfriend Gelinda, who says that Dennis Davis confessed the murder to her. In 2009, 24 years after the murder, Davis was arrested. In April 2011, the case went to trial. Though the prosecution's case was largely circumstantial, they had the phone call that started it all. Dennis Davis was found guilty of the murder. At the sentencing hearing there was another shock: Becki and Dennis Davis had reconciled. He was sentenced to 36 years behind bars. The defense team still insisted they had a solid rebuttal but were unable to present their case. On screen graphic: Dennis Davis will be eligible for parole in 2028. He will be 78. He is appealing the verdict. The 06/09/12 v/o epilogue: A year after the verdict, the DA's office decided to take another look at the physical evidence in this case, and compare it to two similar crimes in Austin from the 1980s. They will search for DNA to see if it matches that of a suspect in those cases. ADA Mark Pryor says he's "happy to have a look" but, he says, he's confident the jury convicted the right man for murdering Natalie Antonetti. Included interviews with: Natalie Antonetti's son and musician Johnny Goodie; Mark Pryor, Austin Assistant District Attorney; Mark Hallman, Antonetti's friend; Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh; Dennis Davis, the suspect; Davis' former girlfriends, Amparo Garcia-Crow and Linda Bless; defense attorneys Wade Russell, Efrain De La Fuente. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

06/12/12      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Name, Rank, Serial Killer?" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on Colonel Russell Williams, a highly-regarded Canadian military officer, and a crime spree that began with a series of bizarre thefts of lingerie and ultimately led to the discovery that he was a serial killer. In 2007, a series of crimes occurred in and around the town of Tweed, Ontario, where Col. Williams lived. In 2009, Laurie Massicotte, one of Williams' neighbors, was sexually terrorized in her home. Shortly afterwards, Marie France Comeau, a corporal at Trenton Airbase, where Williams was stationed, was beaten, raped, and suffocated to death. There were no leads in either case. Two months later, Jessica Lloyd went missing in the nearby town of Belleville, and authorities discovered their first solid clues: tire tracks and boot prints. In 2010, Col. Williams was stopped at a random roadblock. Police noticed his tire tracks matched the ones found near Jessica Lloyd's home. He was brought in for questioning and the ensuing battle of wits between the colonel and Det. Sergeant Jim Smith, the police interrogator from the Ontario Provincial Police, would uncover the details of his chilling double life. After nine hours of interrogation, he confessed, and told police where they could find videos of the crimes. The most surprising evidence however, were the trophies Williams kept to commemorate his crimes: thousands of underpants, bras and canisoles, found in his garage, and photos of him modeling the items. Authorities also found child pornography on his computer. In a deal that almost fell apart over the pornography issue, Williams pleaded guilty to the murders of Comeau and Lloyd, to two sexual assaults and to eighty-two counts of breaking and entering -- the bizarre underwear thefts that started it all. The judge sentenced him to the maximum, life behind bars, which he is serving at the penitentiary in Kingston, Ontario. Although the Canadian government stripped Williams of his rank, burned his uniform and crushed his car, he got to keep his air force pension. Concluding onscreen graphic: Laurie Massicotte is planning to sue the Ontario police for failing to protect her from Russell Williams. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/02/11 rebroadcast: Russell Williams' first assault victim is suing for 2.6 million dollars in damages. Laurie Massicotte is also suing Williams for damages; and she is suing the Ontario provincial police for failing to protect her. Onscreen text graphic for the 06/12/12 rebroadcast: Jessica Lloyd's family, Laurie Massicotte and the first assault victim are all suing Russell Williams for damages totaling more than $13 million. Laurie Massicotte is also suing the Ontario Provincial Police Department for failing to protect her after Williams assaulted a woman in her neighborhood. Interviewed: Laurie Massicotte, Anne Marsand Cook, victims; Tim Appleby, crime reporter who is writing a book about Williams; Angus Watt, retired general; Paul Ciolino, 48 HOURS consultant; Andy Lloyd, brother of Jessica Lloyd; Jeff Farquhar, college roommate; Alain Plante, ex-boyfriend of Marie France Comeau. 06/16/12      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "House of Secrets" - On September 4, 2006, Kathy Wangler, wife of anesthesiologist Dr. Mark Wangler, died from carbon monoxide poisoning in their home in Lima, Ohio. Their thirty-year marriage had been falling apart; three years later, in 2009, investigators came to the conclusion that Dr. Wangler had murdered his wife. They did not believe his story that the death was caused due to a faulty water heater. On the night in question, Mark was sleeping downstairs with the window open and had a fan blowing. Fourteen months after Kathy's death, Mark had gotten remarried to Esther Erkman, a woman he met at church. Esther, along with Mark and Kathy's two son's, believed him to be innocent. Kathy's mother and sisters felt that since Mark was familiar with gasses that he was able to plan and execute the perfect murder. Mark was arrested and the case was brought to trial. The jury found him guilty of aggravated murder and he was sentenced to life in prison. Onscreen text graphics: Mark Wangler will be eligible for parole in twenty-five years. He will be eighty years old. Kathy's $600,000 life insurance policy was split between her two sons. Her mother plans to file a wrongful death suit against Mark Wangler. 06/19/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder at the Manor" (10:00-11:00p) - a report about Harold "H" Landry, a self-made Cajun millionaire who left behind his life in Louisiana to pursue an international romance with a British woman he met online and how this seemingly perfect relationship ended when Lucy Landry was murdered at their home in February 2010. Landry confessed to stabbing his wife to death. Landry, or "H", as he is known to his friends, is a larger-than-life man who, after making a fortune in Louisiana, went looking for love online at the age of fifty-three. In 1989, he met Lucy Davies, a 28-year-old woman with a child who lived in the United Kingdom. His friends thought the romance seemed more like a business deal, and when Lucy became pregnant, Landry settled into a new life as a retiree and new father. Ten years later, Lucy asked for a divorce. According to his friends, he was in a terrible state and didn't know what to do. Then Lucy Landry was dead. He didn't deny that he killed her. The trial began for "the American Millionaire Murderer", as he was known in England, and the past came back to haunt him. In 1994, Landry had shot a man named Chris Pine, the angry husband of his girlfriend at the time. According to his attorney, who subsequently became a friend, his defense was that it was self-defense. He listened to his lawyer and was found guilty of the much lesser charge -- aggravated battery. He appealed, and eventually all he got was probation, a fine and some community service. Shortly afterwards, he began his new life with Lucy, who, he says, knew all about his previous crime. According to his friends, the marriage was collapsing because Landry believed Lucy was having an affair. He went to Mexico to cool off and when he returned, she had moved her boyfriend into the house. He was furious; divorce proceedings began -- and then Lucy Landry was dead. Shortly afterwards, the trial began, with Landry receiving an initial advantage: the Chris Pine shooting was ruled as inadmissible. His lawyers argued that the fight was the latest and last example of Lucy goading him with never-ending financial demands and threats. In a relatively brief trial, very different from American standards, that lasted eight days, Landry was convicted of murder. On screen text graphic: Landry is planning to appeal both murder conviction and sentence, a process which may take years. Interviewed: Harold "H" Landry; Lucy Landry's son James, from a previous marriage; Landry friends Wanda and Ernie Richardson; Pat Fanning (lawyer and friend); Helen Knifton; Police Officers Steve Elcocks, Ian Booth, Barney Tyme; Kristin Harton (Landry family babysitter from 1994); Richard Vemalis, reporter, Worcester News; Andy Childs, one of Landry's attorneys. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

06/23/12      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Long Island Serial Killer" - a followup report to "Long Island Serial Killer" (OAD: 07/12/11; 1st rebroadcast: 12/17/11) on the disappearance of professional escort Shannan Gilbert, near Gilgo Beach, New York. The search for Shannan led to the discovery of a total of ten bodies in the scrub brush of Gilgo Beach, Long Island, New York, leading police to suspect the work of a serial killer. In this report, Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer appears in his first one-on-one interview with Correspondent Erin Moriarty since remains identified as Shannan's were found this week. The other identified bodies included: Melissa Barthelmy, Amber Costello, Megan Waterman, and Maureen Brainard-Barnes, all who had been working as escorts, advertising their services on Craigslist. After police found and identified the previous four women, they discovered more bodies and body parts along the beach. Possible suspects include: Joseph Brewer, who hired Shannan; Michael Pak, Shannan's driver, who took her to Brewer's house; and Peter Hackett, a retired emergency services doctor who called Shannan's mother a few days after she went missing. Interviewed: Sherre and Sarra Gilbert, Shannan's sisters; Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer (new and original footage); Attorney Robin Sax who was hired by the Gilbert family to help with the investigation of Shannan's disappearance; Gus Colletti, whose house Shannan ran to for help, resident of Oak Beach and neighbor of Joseph Brewer; Lynn Barthelmy, Melissa's mother; Steven Cohen, the Barthelmy family attorney; Vernon Gieberth, retired New York City homicide commander; Dave Schaller, Amber Costello's roommate; Lorraine Fla, Megan Waterman's mother; and Melissa Cam, Maureen Brainard-Barnes' sister. (Andrew Strickler, a crime reporter with Long Island's Newsday, who had appeared in the original 07/12/11 broadcast, did not appear in the 12/17/11 rebroadcast or the 06/23/12 rebroadcast.) Onscreen graphics: Suffolk County Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to an arrest in the Long Island Serial Killer case. The 06/23/12 followup includes: an interview with John Ray, attorney for the Gilbert family. Authorities still believe Shannan was not a victim of foul play. Ray put the police's theory to the test by traveling into the marsh at the same time of year and day on what police believe was Shannan's path. Ray highlights houses nearby where Shannan most likely would have traveled to, the harshness of the marsh indicating Shannan would not have taken off her clothes, and shallow waters where her body was found making it unlikely for her to have drowned. Ray and his team did this to further defend his theory that Shannan was murdered in connection with the serial killer and believes her remains were dumped 100 ft. off of Ocean Parkway. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Pvt. Needham's War" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the case of Pvt. John Needham, a decorated soldier diagnosed with traumatic brain injury (TBI) and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and who investigators say beat his 19-year-old girlfriend Jacque Villagomez to death with his bare hands in September 2008. Needham took responsibility for the murder, but remembered little of the crime, recognizing only that something inside him had snapped. After serving in Iraq, Needham had returned home, shattered physically and emotionally. He also suffered from combat injuries and was prescribed drugs which he downed with alcohol. He had known Villagomez, who had also struggled on and off with drug addiction, for only a few months when she moved in with him; his drinking escalated after that. After his father, Mike Needham Sr., told Jacque that she had to move out and she had agreed, an old girlfriend, Renee Stoner, came to the house, which upset Villagomez. An argument between the two women broke out, resulting in Stoner's departure and a call to 911. When police arrived, they found Jacque Villagomez battered and near death, with John Needham naked, crying, and smeared in blood. There was no evidence that anything other than Needham's fists were used to beat Villagomez and he was never able to provide a clear explanation for the killing. Released on bail, his father sought to get his son the care he believed he needed and insisted that the crime was not murder. The father argued that if not for Needham's war injuries, Villagomez would be alive today. To make his case, Mike Needham Sr. allowed investigative reporter Michael de Yoanna and a team of filmmakers to document the unraveling of his son's life. Before his trial, John visited his mother in Tucson, AZ in 2010 for additional back surgery. His brother, Mike Needham Jr., came to visit from California. Shortly after his arrival, Mike found his brother unresponsive -- he was dead at the age twenty-six. His death was determined to be from an overdose of painkillers, but the question remains as to whether it was an accident or suicide. The prosecutors in the Villagomez case says that John Needham may have been a good soldier, but that he needed to be held accountable for what he did. On screen text graphic: 48 Hours Mystery reached out repeatedly to the Army for a response to John Needham's story. The Army declined to comment. On screen text graphic for the 06/26/12 rebroadcast: On the anniversary of Jacque's death, the Savino sisters tossed flowers in the ocean in her memory. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

06/30/12      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Showdown in the Bedroom" - a followup to "Shootout at the Hills" (OAD: 11/27/10), a report on the November 14, 2006 shooting of Danny Hill, by his wife, Charlene. Charlene claimed that their seemingly happy life together was a facade and that she shot him in self-defense. Charlene's years of suffering physical abuse from Danny was well documented by police reports and hospital visits. Their children even admitted that their father, Danny, was abusive, but that he had mellowed after he and their mother had survived a near-fatal motorcycle accident in August 2003 and that their mother had often instigated the arguments, leaving Danny with no choice but to react the way he did. At the trial, prosecutors questioned Charlene's claim of self-defense and claimed that the multi-million dollar estate was the motive. The jury deliberated for two days, before the judge declared a mistrial. Prosecutors decided to try her for a second time. In January 2011, the second trial began. Prosecutors decided the focus would be on science and not sentiment. They presented a case based on forensics and had crime scene investigators and medical examiners testify. Charlene Hill again testified about why she believed her life was in jeopardy. The jurors even took a field trip to Charlene and Danny's bedroom. When deliberations began, it seemed to be another mistrial. The judge encouraged attorneys to broker a plea deal. They came to an agreement: no prison time but Charlene must admit that she murdered her husband. Charlene initially resisted, but agreed to the deal. When she was about to sign the agreement, the jury announced they had reached a verdict. Without reading the verdict, the judge made a decision -- he let both sides seal the deal. After the plea, it was found out that the verdict was guilty, and Charlene would have been sentenced to jail. The jurors were satisfied -- they believed that Charlene was guilty, but had suffered enough. Today, Charlene is trying to build a new life; however, her son Jeremy wants nothing to do with her, but her daughter Jamie has decided to forgive her after a bitter estrangement. On screen text graphic: Charlene Hill is on probation for 10 years. She's required to speak before battered women's groups, but she's forbidden from ever saying that she shot Danny in self-defense. Interviewed: Charlene Hill; her children, Jamie and Jeremy Hill; friends of Charlene's, Jennifer Hinch and Susan Watts; Charlene's defense attorneys, George Parnham and Dee McWilliams; Silvia Less-Sie, juror in the original trial who thought Charlene was innocent; original trial Bailiff Mary Charles; Judge James Shoemaker; Jose Trevino, Fort Bend, Texas Sheriff's Deputy; second trial prosecutors Jill Stotts and Chad Bridges; investigators Lester Phipps and Jeremy Goodrich; Dr. Sara Doyle, Medical Examiner; Dr. Stephen Pustilnik, Galveston County (TX) Medical Examiner. "HIV & AIDS: Awareness & Compassion" - a report on the growing movement -- since the AIDS pandemic first entered the consciousness of the American people more than thirty years ago -- from within the interfaith community on behalf of those living with HIV and AIDS, to assist them in living productive and healthy lives. In spite of overwhelming scientific advances in prevention and ways in which to help those afflicted, there is still a stigma borne by those with the disease. Included in the report are: (1) The "Lighten the Burden" AIDS Conference in Tampa, Florida, is sponsored by the United Methodist Church and aims to teach how the stigma of AIDS kills as effectively as the disease itself. (2) START (Syringe, Training, Advocacy, Resources and Treatment) is a harm reduction, prevention and awareness initiative sponsored by the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Washington, D.C. (3) Food & Friends began in the basement of the Westminster Church and has expanded to a new location. The program more than 1.2 million free meals to those living with life-challenging illnesses in the Washington, D.C. area. (4) The National Association of People with AIDS (NAPWA) is the oldest AIDS organization in the United States and coordinates National HIV Testing Day, which takes place this year on June 27th. (5) Jewish Community Services (JCS), a Baltimore, Maryland-based non-profit, offers age-appropriate education and outreach to raise awareness about risky behaviors associated with substance use, abuse and addiction and the spread of HIV/AIDS.
